APPEAL TIMELINE: WHAT HAPPENS AFTER FILING AN APPEAL

1. Notice of Appeal: PAAB will send a Notice of Appeal to the parties. The Notice of Appeal provides the docket number for the appeal.
2. Answer: The board of review will file an Answer. You, or your representative, will also receive a copy. The Answer will provide the name and contact information of the person who will represent the Board of Review in your appeal.
3. Interim Period: An interim period follows, which may last several months or longer depending on the availability of hearing dates and the circumstances of the case. During this time, the parties may engage in discovery; file motions; prepare exhibits and witnesses; file a Hearing Scheduling and Discovery Plan (HSDP), if required; and discuss possible settlement. PAAB will review the appeal to ensure it has jurisdiction to consider the appeal. If not, PAAB will dismiss the appeal.
4. Notice of Hearing/Written Consideration: PAAB will set a hearing date or date of written consideration. A Notice of Hearing/Notice of Written Consideration will be sent to the parties at least 30 days prior to the scheduled date.
5. Filing of Witness List, Exhibit List, and Exhibits: The Notice will establish deadlines for the parties to serve their Witness List, Exhibit List, and Exhibits on the opposing party. Failure to timely provide witness/exhibit lists and exhibits to the opposing party may result in the evidence being excluded from consideration. Send PAAB a copy of any exhibits, exhibit lists, or witness lists. An appeal subject to a Hearing Scheduling and Discovery Plan may have different deadlines for exchange and service of exhibits, etc.

IMPORTANT: If you would like PAAB to consider any evidence you provided to the board of review, you must file it as an exhibit to PAAB. The board of review is not required to provide PAAB with any evidence you submitted during your board of review protest.
6. Hearing: In-person hearings are currently held at PAAB's Office in Des Moines, IA. If you asked for a Telephone Hearing, you will need to call into the conference call number provided on the Notice of Hearing. For more information, visit <https://paab.iowa.gov/preparing-for-your-paab-hearing>.
7. Order and Final Agency Action: Approximately 45 to 90 days after the hearing/written consideration, PAAB will issue its order on your appeal and send a copy to the parties.
